Matt and Lisa – as requested:

We have a very tentative schedule for the next phase of the implementation tools rule-making. Here it is – please note that it is very tentative and may be revised before it is finalized:

- Mid-late August – Post the draft case studies and the draft implementation tools white paper on the web
- Mid-late September – Hold public workshops around the state. (Have not yet considered locations for these)
- Late fall – File CR-102 and supporting APA materials

Talk with you next week,

Cheryl
